

Singing for Samoa

The tsunami of September 29 2009 took many lives and caused complete destruction on the southern shores of Upolu, particularly Saleapaga Village. This concert will raise much needed funds to contribute to re building the Village, and in particular will support the kind and loving Samoans who have hosted Singing and Dancing cultural exchanges for the last few years. All money will go safely and directly to the people with no administration charges.

Brunswick Women's Choir

La La Ville

Loose Arrangement

The Love Handles

Melbourne Massed Gospel Choir

Mood Swing

Thursdays Children

slide show and talk from Julea Miguel, recently returned from Saleapaga hand made goodies for sale!

Saturday, February 27th

3:00 pm-5:00 pm

Brunswick Uniting Church,
212 Sydney Road (cnr Merri Street)

Cost: $50 generous, $20 waged, $15 concession, kids under 12 free

Bookings online at www.singabout.com.au